HELIOS:FEMINA

Purple Dawn

There you are...

bmmm...
where are your parents?

oh no...

My poor child.
I am sorry that this happened on your holy unction.

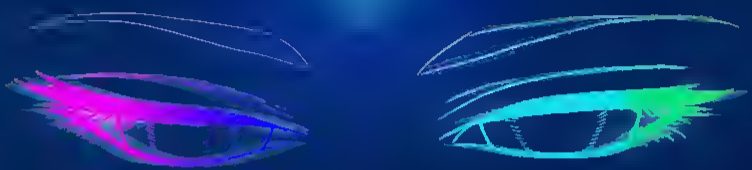
You must be SO frightened.

shhhhhh, it'll be alright.
I cannot revive them...

AH

...but I can ease your pain.

Bebo?



I need you here.
Come quickly

Come quickly.

I'm a little busy right now!
That snake from the fish ark is devouring one of the moons, throwing Zeru off balance!

It's causing massive tsunamis and earthquakes!

Bebo,
that's a Level III
entity.

We don't know how strong it is.
Please make haste! I need you!
Arrrgh! Okay

I'm on my way!

CHOOOM
WOOM
WOOOOM

What?!

A portal?

Why are you expending so much energy opening one?

There's a saying on Zeru that goes...

Take a life, you kill all.

Save a life... you save all.

We still have a chance to beat them if we attack now!
You're an Enchantress. A light warrior.

Why won't you fight?

Because we must choose our battles wisely.

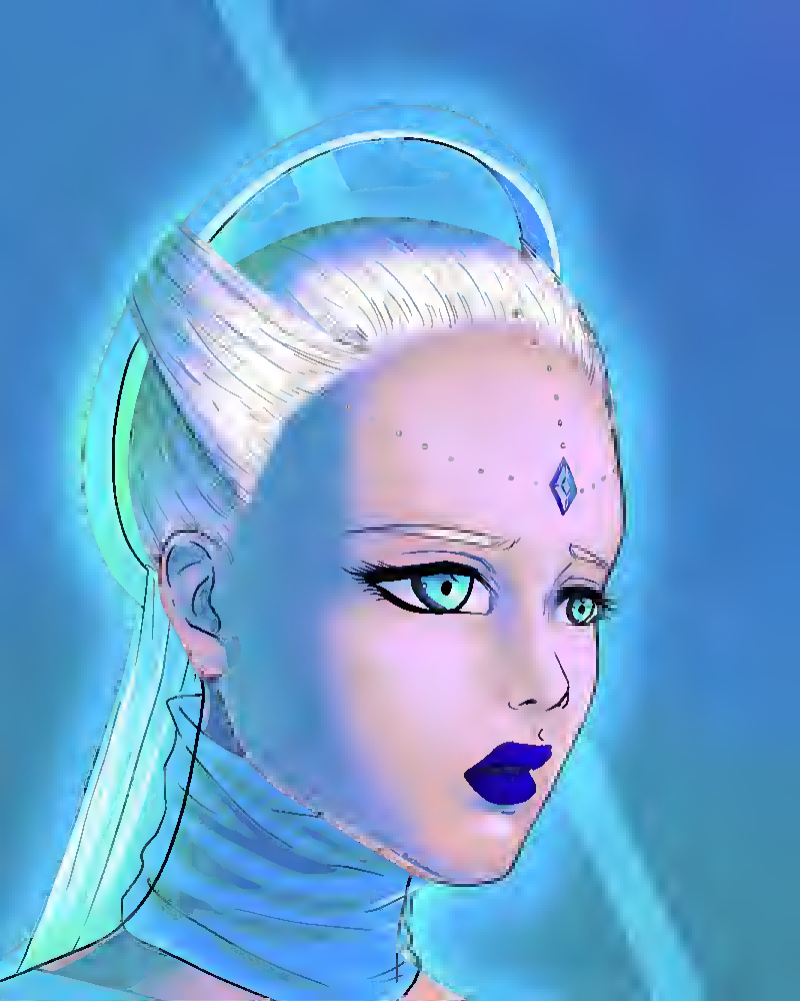
If your enemy is stronger, is it wise to fight?

Knowing that you can lose everything?



Bebo, I can feel the planet.
She is suffering.

The pain and agony
of Zeruians.

I no longer
hear their music, only cries and screams.

It's unbearable...

but if we save one life.
We save all of Zeru.

This temple is falling apart, we have very little time.

Bebo,
please promise me
that you will guide this child and guard her with your life.

Teach her the ways of our melody.

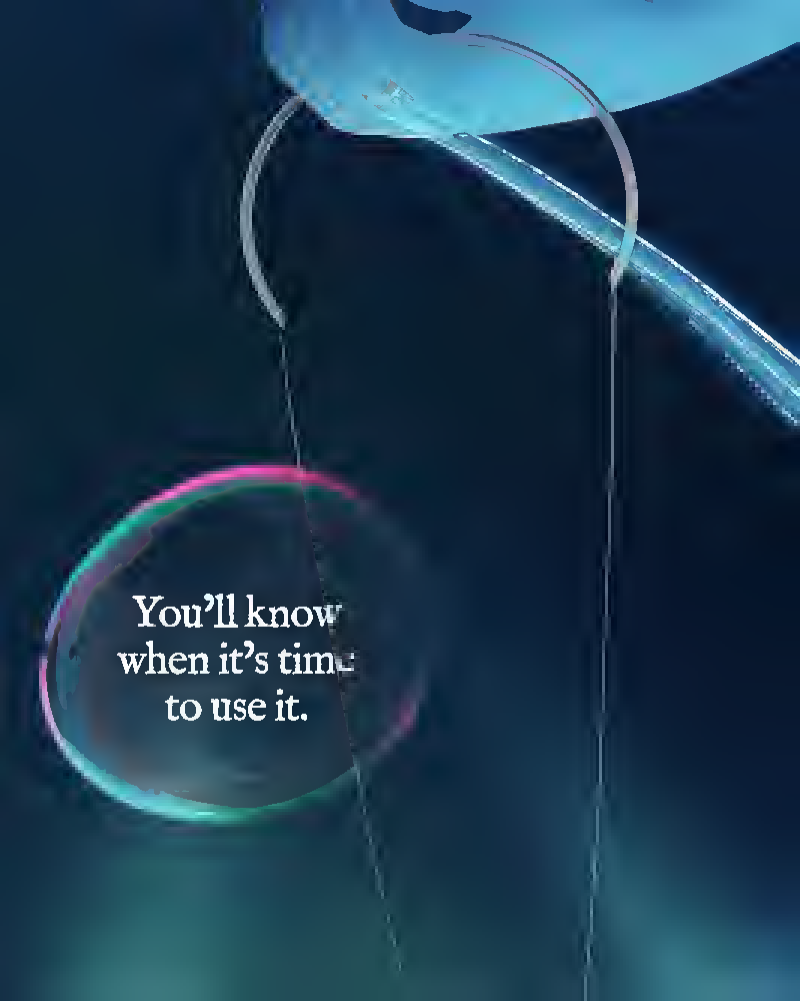
Take this amulet.



You'll know
when it's time to use it.

I promise.

Why can't you come?

If you stay...
you'll... you'll...

sniff
My dearest Bebo...
It's okay, I do not fear
the night because the dawn will always come.

You and the child
possess the crystal eye,
so you can make safe passage
through this doorway.

Now rest,
my friend.

You shall awaken when she is ready to sing.

WOOO WOOOOOOM

WOOF
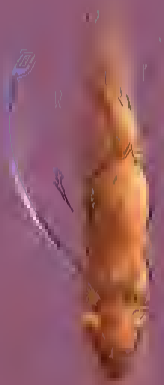
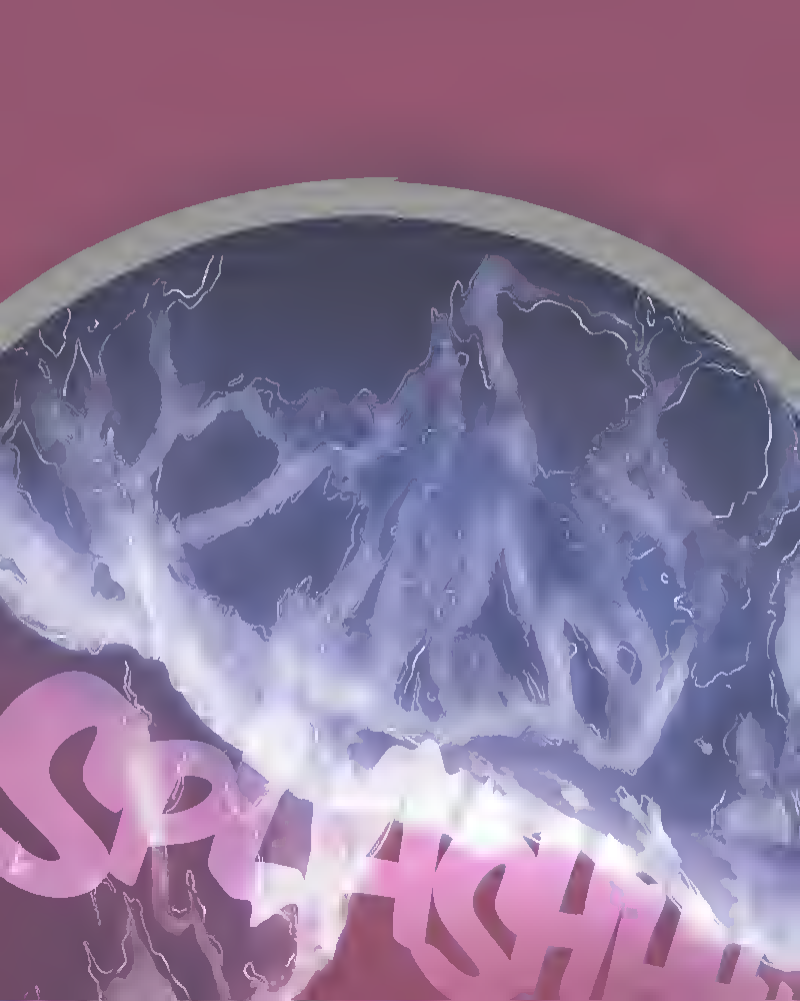
Chloe?

What's wrong girl?

Wait!



Chloeeeeeee!

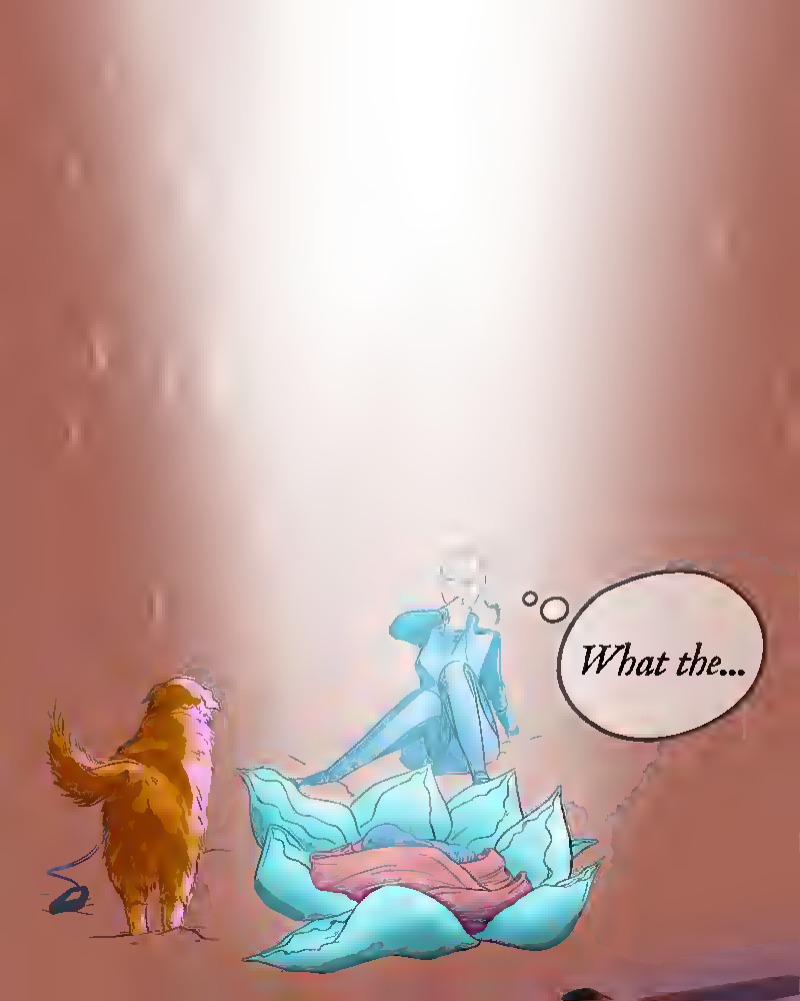


SPLASH

huff huff

gasp!

WAAH



What the...

What was that?!
What should I do?

I can't just leave her here.

awww

Well...

...guess you're coming

home with us.

Bebo, you know,
I've always believed...

...that stories are written and forged in the stars

...so whenever you look up to see them,

just remember...

how every star is
a sun to someone.
